A SIGHT FOR SEA EYES!

Well, friends...while I was out cruising the Caribbean with my extended family, sleeping in each day, making nightly visits to the karaoke bar, and managing to only gain 3.3 lbs. from the endless food available to me at the buffet, you all seem to have been HARD at work! I don't know of a direct quote out there to this end, but I do know that I've just experienced it: you can tell the true merit of a congregation by what they accomplish in the absence of their pastor—and you all did not disappoint!

A small group was able to help move our church neighbors from their current location to a new apartment. Thank you to those of you who were available to make that happen!

Last year, I organized a group right after worship to put away chairs and get rooms ready for Mission Serve. This year, planning a vacation caused that to slip my mind—and yet, it happened! Thank you to our deacon chair, deacons, and all the volunteers who showed up after church last Sunday to get the rooms prepped for our hosting. That was QUITE the surprise to arrive to on Monday morning!

Preparations continued, and leaders and students have headed out to Worship Arts Camp for the week—thank you to all those folks from our church helping to make that happen this year, as chaperones and teachers!

Called and competent ministers stepped in for me behind the pulpit to continue our All-Time Bible Classics summer sermon series—thank you to Rev. Amy Hall and Rev. Paul Dakin for leading us in worship, and to Rev. Randy Bower for leading communion.

Our new secretary, Karey Garrison continued to work behind the scenes on preparations for hosting Mission Serve—getting all the items needed ordered and organized!

I know that I'm missing many more points of recognition, and I guess that's the point! The summer is a busy time full of potential for ministry and service, and you all continue to step up to the plate! I'm grateful for all your faithful work in my absence, and am equally as grateful to get to rejoin you for the opportunities ahead of us.

To that end, let me remind you, Mission Serve will be here NEXT WEEK—July 18-25! Please continue to be in prayer for us, and if you have volunteered to help with cleanup, lunches, or in some other capacity—thank you! Along with being the point person for hosting this year, I will also be the camp pastor, so if you find yourself free any evening of the week around 7pm, please feel free to join us in the sanctuary for worship! And if you haven't signed up to help with cleaning in the mornings from 9-10:30am yet, there is still time! I especially have need for a few more helpers on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, so if you are available, let me know! As always, it is my joy to serve as your pastor. -Josh
