ASSOCIATE PASTOR OF COMMUNITY MISSIONS

On Sunday, July 26, 2026, Madison Heights Baptist Church voted to call Rev. Amy Hall as Associate Pastor of Community Missions. Amy is the Founder/Pastor of Shalom Creatives—a creative ministry working through collaborative partnerships with multiple churches and organizations. She has served in the Greater Lynchburg area for some years now, ministering in nontraditional church settings, and individually as a pastoral presence.

Currently, Amy also serves as the Moderator for the Virginia Baptist Women in Ministry and in the Ascent Arts Collective for the BGAV. She is a lifelong Greater Lynchburg area resident, and is committed to the ministry of Jesus in our community. We are excited for her to bring her ministerial skills and Christlike presence to serve the people of Madison Heights and Amherst County! Below are words from some who have ministered with Amy:

“Madison Heights is beyond blessed to have called Amy onto their staff. In my role, I am excited to be connected to you all as you create something new that can be shared with other congregations. This new relationship is such an encouragement to others who are called to ministries that reach the growing numbers of people in our neighborhoods who aren’t seeking Jesus in church, but who are desperate for the love and hope that Jesus offers.” -Kristen Curtis (Community Missions Coordinator, BGAV)

“Amy is one of those rare leaders who slows down to really see people and empower others to discover God in their midst. She is creative in what she makes but especially in leaving room for the Spirit to lead us into a future full of possibilities only possible with God. I’m thrilled for the community building and transformation that will happen as Pastor Amy and MHBC collaborate together!” -Josh Hayden (Pastor, First Baptist Church, Ashland)

“Amy is a non-anxious presence in an increasingly anxious world, bringing a calm confidence that helps others feel seen, heard, and grounded. Her creative spirit has often helped me work through my own challenges in ways that are thoughtful, gentle, and life-giving. Above all, Amy has a servant’s heart. She is always ready to step in, encourage others, and faithfully use her gifts wherever they are needed.”
-Kristen Old (Pastor, St. John’s Baptist Church)

“Amy has a genuine pastoral heart. She listens deeply, leads with compassion, and creates space for people to feel seen and valued. I’ve experienced her as a thoughtful and Spirit-led leader, especially in how she connects faith with meaningful ministry in the community. Madison Heights is receiving a true gift.”
-Chris Carter (Pastor, Fairview Christian Church)
