ALL THE AUTUMN THINGS...

The Beelers enjoyed being away for a Fall Break extended weekend. We stayed in Columbia, SC to visit Congaree National Park, and were gifted with surprisingly kind weather considering the hurricane just to the west of us! The next day, we visited Carowinds Theme Park in Charlotte for the first time to ride some rides and take in the fall festivities. We had a great time together, but certainly missed all of you for second Sunday breakfast and worship. Thank you to Rev. Dr. Tim Madison for his willingness to step up in my absence and preach when my need was indeed “real bad”—on a weekend when he simply intended to visit! I hope many of you had the privilege to catch up with him after his preaching in a wonderful service.

It is always the case upon returning from a break that you have something of a “catch up” to do. I’ve spent Tuesday reminding myself of where I left things, reminding myself of what the week looks like, and remembering just what it is that’s ahead of us in the coming weeks and months. As it turns out, we are all getting ready for what is probably the busiest quarter of church life, which means many opportunities to connect, serve, and minister! Here are some of those opportunities for you to consider:

Catherine White 35th Anniversary Celebration

This month marks Catherine’s 35th anniversary serving our congregation—a wonderful accomplishment that has blessed so many of us. To celebrate, on Sunday, October 25 immediately after worship, there will be a reception in the Fellowship Hall. Refreshments will be served and there will be a collection point to leave Love Offerings, cards, and gifts for Catherine to say thank you for her faithfulness and ministry. Please plan to be in attendance for this occasion, and let Catherine know how much you appreciate her in the days ahead!

Advent Celebrations

The season of Advent is full of traditions and opportunities to make meaningful memories as a church family. We have a few things we could use your participation with. First, we are looking for 8 individuals to provide Nativity Sets for display in the sanctuary again. If you’d be willing to contribute one for the season, it would certainly be appreciated! Second, we need Advent Devotion writers! We started this last year and are looking to continue it this year. If you’d be willing to contribute a devotional writing or artistic creation, we would certainly appreciate it. You can signup for both of these in the Fellowship Hall on Wednesdays or the Sanctuary on Sundays! Finally, the Christmas Festival is just around the corner! Mark your calendars for Sunday, December 6 to participate this year—and don’t forget to invite a friend! As always, it is my great privilege to serve as your pastor! -Josh
