KINGDOM HANDS

We are going into the evening of Day 3 here at ground zero for Mission Serve in the Greater Lynchburg area, and already, I've become aware of one very significant thing. When about 150 participants descend on your building—made up of adults and primarily teenagers (though we do have a couple of babies this year!)—sleeping in every nook possible, you learn things about your property. For instance, there are AC units we don't use regularly that develop issues, when a cooler full of drink blows out it doesn't take much to track it throughout the Fellowship Hall, old pipes create regular bathroom "situations," and we have A LOT of trash cans to empty daily! A group in every corner of the building will absolutely make these things plain!

But that's not really what I meant I became aware of. No, what I became aware of was still one step away from that. Because when the problems pop up, so do the helpers! Each day, we've had 10-15 people here for clean-up sessions to keep common spaces and showers looking proper, and deal with all the trash! When AV and sound needs came up in the sanctuary, we had AV crew here ready to help me get it all straight! When HVAC needs presented themselves, we had our trusty Building & Grounds chair stop by RIGHT after he got back in town from Connecticut!

I guess what I mean to say is that, when the needs present themselves most fully in our congregation, kingdom hands have a tendency to show up! Thank you to everyone who is been involved in a variety of ways so far this week. If you find yourself looking for something to do on Saturday morning at 9am, we could definitely use as many hands as possible then to do our full force cleanup after everyone has left!

There are still a few opportunities to engage in summer fellowship before we get back into the flow of the school year, and we would love to see you and your kids as part of them! The Otter Creek play day will be this Sunday, July 26 from 1-4pm. Lunch will be served right after church, and we will leave after that. The Holliday Lake Camping Trip will be July 31-August 3 for our men and boys and costs $50/person. If you want to be part of this trip, reach out to John Grieser ASAP! And finally, the Harvey Pool Party will be Friday, August 7 from 2-6pm!

I'm so grateful for the opportunity to fill this summer full of chances to serve our community with you, and am looking forward to ending it well with fellowship and celebration. As always, it is my joy to serve as your pastor! -Josh
